Our boots are provided with a two-year warranty from date of purchase, please retain proof of purchase, which will be needed to validate a claim within the two-year period. The two-year warranty covers the product specifically for manufacturing defects, however this is subject to reasonable wear and tear and does not cover misuse of the product, which includes, deterioration of colour through UV exposure, heat, chemicals and general waste. Due to the manufacturing process, which includes vulcanisation it is not possible to repair and re-vulcanise any rubber boots, this includes the repairing of moving parts such as zips, straps and soles. In the event that your footwear product is defective please contact customer services to determine your eligibility to place a Warranty Claim. Replacement of your footwear under warranty will not be extended after the warranty has expired. In the event we cannot provide an exact replacement we will substitute a similar product or provide a full refund.
